

My child,

Behold, pay attention to what I say to you, I have given you everything, all of creation, and it was very good. I made my covenant with you, my promise to you. And behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go. I will not leave you.

I have heard the cry of my people, your cries have come to me. And behold, I am coming to you. I have sent my angels before you. Behold, you have turned aside from me, you have gone away from what I commanded you, you have sinned against me. And behold, death will come in this life, you will lie down with your fathers.

But behold, I have shown my plans all along, I have brought life to those that are barren, I have shown how I will dwell on this earth, I have given signs of a son that will be born to the house of David. I have sent my voice to the prophets and behold, I will pour out my spirit on you. A virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and his name shall be Immanuel, God with us. And when you see it, on that day, you will say, "this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us."

I will come, I will save you.

Pay attention to this, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I have taken from your hand the cup of staggering; the bowl of my wrath. Darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but I will arise upon you, and my glory will be seen upon you. Nations shall come to my light and Kings to my rising.

Behold, I am against the shepherds who neglected the weak who were not strengthened, who neglected the sick who were not healed, the injured who were not bound up, those who strayed who were not brought back, the lost who were not sought, so I myself will search for my sheep and seek them out. I will seek the lost, I will bring back the strayed, I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak.

For you see, the one I am sending, He was in the beginning with me, all things were made through him, and without him, nothing was made.

He will bring good news to the poor, bind up the brokenhearted, proclaim liberty to the captives, and he will open the prison to those who are bound!

Behold, pay attention, I have proclaimed to the ends of the earth, your salvation comes! The days are coming, I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. Behold, I will make a new covenant, a new promise with you.

Does this all seem impossible? Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh, is anything too hard for me? The days are coming, I will fulfill this promise.

Do you remember those dry bones in the valley, the bones that were so very dry and without life. Are you dry and without life? Do you believe that all hope is lost? Do you think that you have been cut off? Remember what I say to you, behold, I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live. I will open your graves and raise you from the grave, I will bring you to what I have promised.

Behold, it is coming and it will be brought about. You will see Kings rise, Empires grow and fall, there will even be a day where there is a famine of my word, so much time will pass where you are waiting to hear me speak. But behold, your King is coming to you; but pay attention, remember, I am doing something new. Your king will come to you, righteous and having salvation, humble and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

And I will send my messenger to prepare the way for him, before the great and awesome day, for behold, pay attention, he is coming.

I have sent a messenger, an angel to a man named Joseph, who is to be wed to a woman named Mary. I have told him to not fear, to take this woman as a wife, for she has conceived a son from the Holy Spirit. Remember, I told you my plan, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel, God with us. They will call him Jesus, for not only is God with us, but his name will tell all that God saves.

So behold, fear not. I bring you good news today. For all of these things that I write to you that were to come about have come to pass. When the messenger I sent before Jesus saw him walking to the Jordan River, when his time had come to do the work I sent him to do, my messenger John said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!" And I gave my witness to all and I said in a voice from heaven, behold, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

Jesus has told you that he is sending my promise to you. Jesus has said that he has set before you an open door and behold, he stands at that door and he knocks. If anyone hears his voice and opens the door, he will come, the one who I have promised would come will come to you. He stands at the door and knocks and he says, "behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

You see, the Lion of Judah, the root of David has conquered. And when all comes to pass, the dwelling place of God will again be with you. Jesus will dwell with you and you will be his people, I will be with you. Pay attention to this, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?

I hear your cries. They have come to me.

I have taken from your hand the cup of staggering; the bowl of my wrath and I am making all things new. Write this down, for all I have said to you in this letter is trustworthy and true.

I know you are waiting for all to come to pass, behold, I am coming soon. Blessed are you if you keep the words I have sent to you today.

Jesus, the savior I have sent to you, the one who was in the beginning, God saves, God with you. He is standing at the door and knocking. Hear his voice, come to the door and I will be with you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you all,

Amen.
