

GLOBAL MISSION TRIP

CASA DE LA ESPERANZA (HOUSE OF HOPE) | ANÁHUAC, MEXICO
JULY 25-31, 2026

PROJECT OVERVIEW:

Since 1998, Casa de la Esperanza has been caring for orphaned, abandoned, and abused children in Anáhuac, Chihuahua, Mexico. On this mission trip, Crossings will coordinate an evangelistic and discipleship program, with activities centered around the children at Casa. We will also serve alongside their church in Anáhuac to engage in community outreach. Our team will assist with meal distribution, Vacation Bible School, evangelistic, recreational, and relational activities with the CASA students and the local community.

PROJECT GOAL:

- Strengthen relational ties between the Casa church, children’s home, and the local community.
- Engage with the CASA children and staff in a Jesus- centered, discipleship and evangelistic campaign.
- Come alongside the local church with an effective opportunity to connect with the community it serves, through its outreach endeavors.
